SELF-DISCIPLINE — JUSTICE — HONOR

As a student of John Marshall High School, I will aim to be true to myself and to others by promoting good citizenship, being honest in all school activities, and accepting my responsibilities.

I will do my part to uphold the ideals and traditions of John Marshall High School: self-discipline, justice, and honor.

Signature_________________________ Date_____

RESPONSIBILITIES OF A MARSHALLITE

1. I will use my time wisely in order to receive the full benefit of all available education.
2. I will respect the rights and property of others. I will neither destroy nor deface the property of my school.
3. I will not cheat on tests, homework, or other classroom activities.
4. I will uphold all school rules.
5. I will demonstrate my pride in my school by showing good sportsmanship at all athletic events.

IN APPRECIATION . . .

FOR HER MANY YEARS OF LOYAL DEVOTION,

FOR HER KINDNESS AND CONSCIENTIOUSNESS,

FOR HER CEASELESS PATIENCE AS OUR REGISTRAR,

"Who's been filing in my cabinet?"

We, the students of John Marshall,
Dedicate our 1962 Marshallite
To Miss Nellie Parker Henson

Miss Henson, soon after graduating from John Marshall, returned to her alma mater in the capacity of secretary to the principal; a few years later she was made school registrar in sole charge of all student records. Due to her careful checking, many students have taken last minute subjects in order to get the proper credits for graduation. Although the present guidance program has diminished her contacts with the pupils, everyone realizes her importance and holds her in respect, love, and admiration.

SELF-DISCIPLINE . . . JUSTICE . . . HONOR

FOREWORD

SELF-DISCIPLINE . . . JUSTICE . . . HONOR

Self-discipline . . . Justice . . . Honor, these are the ideals of every true Marshallite. Such a standard of excellence was set for each of us by our second Chief Justice, John Marshall. Now each student willingly accepts these goals and strives, to the best of his ability, to fulfill them. Through extra-curricular activities, student government organizations, and diligent application to academic studies, a loyal Marshallite achieves these ideals. In this, our 1962 Marshallite, we dedicate ourselves anew to uphold these traditions of our great school.

October 16, 1961

The administration and faculty of your school would like to congratulate the Marshallite Staff for developing the 1962 Marshallite around the ideals of self-discipline, justice and honor. These ideals appear on our honor cards. All of us are sure they are important.

I consider the citizenship project, the honor cards, and the emphasis that the Marshallite Staff is making on these ideals, to be not only worthy but also exceptionally significant. The 1962 Marshallite will help all of us to live our slogan:

IN CITIZENSHIP - BE RESPONSIBLE IN CITIZENSHIP - BE MATURE APPRECIATE ITS PRIVILEGES AND ACCEPT ITS RESPONSIBILITIES

Happy Birthday, Miss Lambert!

School Days

JM

By Betty Puckett

September 5, 1961, found John Marshall filled with excited freshmen, blase sophomores, and bustling juniors and seniors, all meeting new teachers and classmates as another school year began.

Sooner than anyone expected, the football season was in full swing. Students cheered our team on to victory many times, and pep rallies become a must for every spirit-minded citizen.

This display of team work was evident not only on the football field but also with the John Marshall Corps of Cadets on the blacktop. On Sponsors' Day, each happy sponsor received colorful tributes from her company.

Our traditional football game against Teejay just before Thanksgiving was attended by supporters, young and old, of the two schools. Showy convertibles, elaborately decorated and over-flowing with representatives from various clubs and organizations, added to the excitement in a pre-game parade. During half time came the long-awaited moment as Peggy Richards, former Miss Justice, crowned lovely Sandra Townsend as our new Miss Justice of 1961-1962. What could have added a more perfect ending to these events than the big victory we had over Teejay?

The wonderful opportunity to have in our school a foreign-exchange student will be ours next year as the result of a very successful American Field Service campaign. Our goal was $700; and in less than a week we had not only reached it but also, by the generous contributions of individuals and organizations of John Marshall and our community, had exceeded it! Many clubs had money-raising projects, homerooms were in competition, and we had a soc hop after a basketball game to raise funds.

An event, eagerly awaited, the Cadet Hop, was held December 16. The splendor and precision of the figure and the gala music and dance were certainly a reward for those who worked and planned strenuously for the hop.

Preceding the Christmas holidays, a pageant of the Christmas Story and a play by Mrs. Atkins' senior English Class given for assembly, were made more meaningful by the beautiful carols sung by our Choir.

After we returned from the holiday, it seemed that only hard work in preparation for final tests and exams lay ahead; but the weather had a surprise in store for us! On January 10, we and the snow stayed at home.

Study periods, usually held only in classrooms, this year extended to the library for independent studying. Juniors and seniors with high scholastic averages were given the opportunity to work in the library during an off period on any project interesting to them. Credit for all work accomplished during the year went on the permanent records.

On January 27 our juniors and seniors experienced an unusual event: the Roaring Twenties had returned. The school gym with appropriate trappings could only be entered with the secret passwords. "Ask for Joe." Chip Boggs and Tassie Bagley, the King and Queen of the prom, reigned well over an exciting evening, which ended all too soon.

In February the cadet corps held competitive company exercises. Each company evidenced their good training, and the winner was difficult to pick.

An outstanding basketball season of which every Marshallite was proud was capped by an excellent showing of our team at the Central District Basketball Tournament.

Constant interest and hard work were put into our school paper and annual. These two staffs earned top honors for their publications as in previous years. Students preparing for more future literary work, under the direction of Miss Collins, Miss Lambert, and Miss Sanders in their English classes, were given an excellent chance for advanced learning and writing experience.

A new teaching method was used successfully in several classes including Mrs. Bugg's math classes. Instead of constant oral instruction, the teacher gave students typed information; in many cases this helped a pupil to teach himself. Any questions a pupil had after sufficient study were answered in class.

Our Thanksgiving Assembly

Dr. Dixon, faculty, and fellow students, . . .

The spring of 1962 found not only romance blooming at John Marshall, but also plans for another dance, the Junior-Senior Prom. Juniors in charge of plans followed the example set by their senior friends in getting only the best in music and decoration.

In the Science Department vigorous experimenting went on both in and out of lab. An explosive teaching method was set up in the classroom. While one teacher carried on the lab work with pupils, another was in charge of regular book work. Both teachers and students were benefited by this program.

This year, as in the past, Jayem participated in the American Legion oratorical contest. Several students were selected from senior English classes for their speaking ability and knowledge of the Constitution to enter the J. M. school branch of the nation-wide event. The winner then went on to the higher branch contests.

A new and welcome highlight of the school year came in late spring when the members of the music department, under the very capable direction of Mr. Charles Cooke and Major Paul Cartwright, presented the delightful operetta, H.M.S. Pinafore. Students, parents, and teachers alike enjoyed this outstanding dramatic and musical production. This was the first musical our school has had in several years.

Many of our seniors who had applied to colleges and had been accepted were receiving scholarships and awards of merit. Others with business plans for the future eagerly talked over their qualifications and job opportunities with the counselors. The Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society, and awards assembly recognized many of these outstanding seniors.

The colorful May Day festivities with the Queen and her Attendants were for underclassmen the climax of a wonderful school year.

However, seniors awaited graduation! The assigning of robes, the receiving of graduation invitations and calling cards were but previews of the big event.

Final exams and then graduation day came, when the ending of senior's J.M. history was only the beginning of another.

Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors, exchanging farewells with teachers and classmates until next year, looked forward to summer vacation.

Thus ended J. M. history for 1961-1962.

Seniors

You are the Seniors, and it is yours to experience deep pride in your school as perhaps no other class can. At graduation you become aware of the strong bonds with which you are bound to J.M. In your four years you have come to play so integral a role in the life of your school that leaving necessitates a broad readjustment of your perspective. Everything—the dances, the picnic, the last exams, the hurry and flurry of graduation, and the painful farewells—makes you appreciate your high school experience as having a far deeper meaning to you than you ever realized.

IN MEMORIAM

Delores Ann Marshall
November 19, 1961

The students and faculty of John Marshall were greatly shocked and deeply saddened when they learned that Delores Ann Marshall had died in an automobile accident. The Junior Class especially felt a great loss when they learned of the death of their classmate.

The following verse was written by Delores the week prior to the accident.

STARS

Gazing at the stars at night
I feel a glimmer of hope
That all will be well by morning.
The winds whisper, "Don't mope,
For tomorrow is another dawning."

MISS JUSTICE
Sandra Townsend

Peggy Richards, "Miss Justice, 1961," crowned her during half-time activities as the students cheered their approval. Later Sandra said, "Being crowned 'Miss Justice' was one of the biggest highlights of my senior year."

Sandra is sponsor of Company C and editor of the military section in the MARSHALLITE, the John Marshall yearbook. She has been elected president of the Drama Club, the Christian Youth League, and her homeroom. She is also a member of the Character and Display Commissions and the Future Business Leaders of America.

Other candidates for this honor, chosen for outstanding school spirit, were Pat Burch, Barbara Lacy, Sharon Libby, Veeanne Mays, Jackie Mills, Judie Moore, Mary Omohundro, and Sheila Thibeault.

A large float brought the girls before the John Marshall stands. The theme of the float was the scales of justice on which were written our high school's motto: Self-discipline, Justice, and Honor.

During the early spring the Girls' Athletic Association, hoping for a warm, sunny day, planned the traditional May Day festivities for May 16. This organization worked diligently with their advisor, Miss Sandy Weeks, in holding elections, planning the program for May Day, making costumes, and taking care of many necessary details.

When the grand day finally arrived, lovely Catherine Quirk was crowned May Queen. Demure Sheila Thibeault was her maid of honor.

To carry out "Happy Holidays," the theme of May Day, classes performed dances. These colorful dances included a tumbling exhibition, a skeleton dance, a romantic waltz, the bunny hop, and May Pole dance.

Attendants from the Senior Class included Pat Burch, Judy Dodson, Virginia Gaulding, Sharon Libby, Veeanne Mays, and Mary Omohundra.

The Junior attendants to the queen were Mary Halda, Jeanne Ritchie, Barbara Stevens, and Kay Williams.

The Sophomore representatives were Sandra Colgin, Nancy Long, Betty Matthews, and Connie Thompson, while the Freshman Class representatives were Donna Dolan, Carolyn Evans, Janet Faires, and Beth Griffin.

Student Co-operative Association

President	Tom Huff
Vice-President	Jackie Mills
Secretary	Judy Barbee
Treasurer	Bobby Mudd
Sponsor	Mrs. Jackie Tucker

The purpose of the Student Co-operative Association is to provide for student participation, develop a respect for our alma mater and its traditions, to promote a better understanding between the faculty and students, to encourage activities beneficial to the school, foster friendliness, loyalty, the school spirit, and to strive to uphold the American ideals.

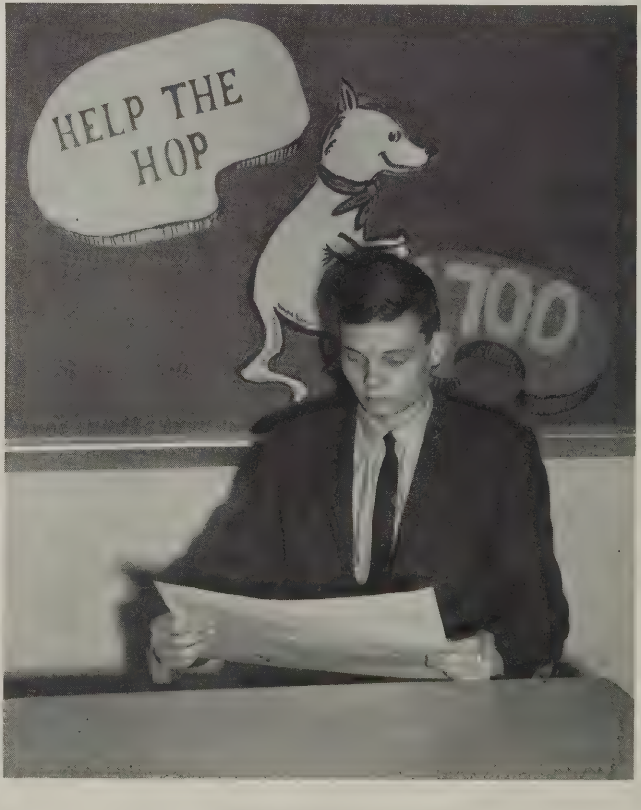
The John Marshall Student Association is composed of the entire student body guided by the Executive Committee and the school officers. Each spring the students elect officers and members of the Executive Committee who carry on the work of the association.

The S.C.A. has been busy this year working on various projects. During the summer students attended the National Conference in Oklahoma, and the S.C.A. Workshop at Radford College. The executive Committee met during the summer to plan activities for the coming year. In the spring, the S.C.A. held an assembly to introduce the S.C.A. candidates for the coming year.

The Executive group was responsible for five assemblies this year. The newly-elected officers were installed during the first assembly, and at Thanksgiving the Executive Committee sponsored an inspiring assembly. Each homeroom decorated and filled a basket to be sent to Crippled Children's Hospital and Sheltering Arms Hospital. In January the S.C.A. presented an assembly on the foreign exchange student drive.

Eight members of the council attended the District meeting of Student Councils at Douglas Freeman High School, the theme of which was "Tomorrow Begins Today." Fifteen members attended the Virginia Foreign Student Forum at Thomas Jefferson, and three delegates attended the State Convention at Radford College. Pencils with the school motto printed on them, decals, note paper, and postcards with a picture of the school were sold during the year.

The Student Council sponsored a drive for a foreign exchange student through the American Field Service. During the week of December 11-15, a campaign was held to raise money for the goal of $700. The theme, "Help the Hop," meaning help the student hop from a foreign country to John Marshall, was used to publicize the drive. Tags were given to each student who contributed, and posters were placed in each homeroom. A Soc Hop at the end of the week climaxed the drive. The cooperation of the student body, faculty, and homeroom presidents made the drive a tremendous success and over $950 was collected.



Huf Helps Hop

The Character Commission was responsible for the newly-adopted Honor cards, and the Research Commission aided this commission by inquiring in other schools about honor studies. The School Spirit Commission arranged all activities concerning the games, which included the crowning of "Miss Justice" at the J.M.-T.J. game. "Stop Fires, Save Lives" was the theme used on posters distributed by the Health and Safety Commission during Fire Prevention week. The Assembly Commission was in charge of all assembly programs, one of which was an awards assembly where deserving students received an award from the Service Awards Commission. The Display Commission presented interesting ideas and displays in the glass cases in the halls. The Orientation Commission acquainted the Freshmen with their school by an orientation program before the opening of school.

Character Commission

S. C. A. Commissions

Commissions at John Marshall play an important role in the functioning of the Student Cooperative Association. Guided by the Executive Committee, the commissions carry on much of the planning and activities of the S.C.A. There is a faculty adviser and a chairman appointed from the Executive Committee for each of the nine commissions.

The Assembly Commission, headed by Sara Stephens and advised by Miss Thelma Keene, is in charge of all assembly programs. Mr. Linwood Condrey is the faculty adviser of the Service Awards Commission which is led by Tassie Bagley. The duty of this commission is to recognize deserving students who would otherwise get no credit for their "behind the scenes" work.

Judy Tate is the chairman of the Character Commission with Miss Helen Hulcher acting as faculty sponsor. This commission is responsible for the newly-developed Honor system, and their job is to see that the Honor cards are properly used to increase the good citizenship of students. The Display Commission, supervised by Mr. Frank T. Akers, is led by Sally Marks. This commission is in charge of decorating for all school events. The Health and Safety Commission promotes safety in the school by distributing posters and calling attention to special weeks. The co-chairmen of this commission are Bobby Mudd and Dickie Chance, and their faculty sponsor is Mr. Wynn Gregory. The duty of Julia Ann Dickinson and Mr. Robert Turner on the Orientation Commission is to familiarize new students with John Marshall at the beginning of each year with a special assembly program.

The School Spirit Commission promotes school spirit for all sports and plans activities for the games. Mr. Bowling sponsors this commission with Judie Moore and Steve Eggleston as co-chairmen. Cammile Dennis and Miss Marjorie Dearhart lead the Research Commission which conducts surveys and obtains information needed in the school.

The purpose of the French Club is to encourage further study of the French people and their customs. It also helps promote interest in the French language.

Our sponsors this year were Mrs. Hamersly and Mrs. Hart. The officers were Ann Winfree, president; Tommy Cox, vice-president; Elizabeth Rock, secretary; and Steve Eggleston, treasurer. We had approximately seventy-five members, making us one of the largest organizations in the entire school.

This year members of the French Club entered a car in the J.M.-T.J. game parade and aided the John Marshall "Help the Hop" fund by contributing to the American Field Society.

Our programs included slides, movies, speakers and skits on France and French life. At our Christmas party, we presented an original skit on French Christmas customs. The year was concluded with a Spring Party.

The French Club has enjoyed a very pleasant and profitable year. We hope that interested French students will join us next year and help make our Club as successful as it has been this year.

The John Marshall Spanish Club, better known as the Don Juan Club, has had an active and satisfying term, striving for the attainment of its motto "Adelante siempre adelante," meaning "Onward, always onward."

The club, open to all students now taking Spanish and those who have completed two years, has had one of the largest memberships in its history. Its purpose is to practice Spanish and to familiarize its members with the customs, arts, and literature of Spanish speaking countries. The emblem of the club is a shield with the castle and lion of Spain, while the colors are red, white, and green, the colors of the Mexican flag. The club song is "Buenos Propositos."

Through the efforts of an active executive committee and the faculty advisor, Mrs. J. R. Tucker, interesting and educational programs which include movies in Spanish, slides of foreign countries, and programs by students commemorating Spanish holidays, have been given.

One of the many school activities in which the club participated was the annual T.J.-J.M. game. In a white convertible decorated in the school colors, officers took their place in the parade preceding the game.

In the near future the club plans to write a new constitution and to follow parliamentary procedure more closely. Another objective is to help the school in the financing of a foreign exchange student.

Because of a growing interest in Latin, the John Marshall Latin Club is divided into two parts. The Virgil group, the fourth year class, studied Virgil's Aeneid and the Cicero group, the third year class, studied Cicero's orations. Each group met the first Monday of every month during the fifth and fourth periods respectively.

The program for the first meeting was presented by the students on the life and career of the author they were studying. The following programs were presented by outside speakers who added greatly to the club's knowledge of Rome and the Latin language, and their influence on our present language and customs. These speakers included Mr. Bob Ullman, an architect; Mr. William Norfleet, Dr. Robert Boyd, Dr. C. C. Gamble, Dr. James Appleby, Dr. Wade Boggs, and Dr. Robert Kirkpatrick, all from the Union Theological Seminary; Dr. James Constantine and Dr. Laura Sumner, both from the University of Virginia; and Mrs. John Reed who spoke on early Christianity. As a special Christmas program, the club sang familiar carols in Latin, read the Christmas story in both Latin and English, and reported on the similarities between our Christmas and the Romans' Saturnalia.

In the spring the club had a picnic with Thomas Jefferson club members. Other extra activities during the year included entering a car in the TJ-JM football game parade, contributing to the A.F.S. "Help the Hop" campaign through a bake sale sponsored by the Cicero group, and giving a donation of eighteen dollars to the Christmas Mother fund.

This year, 1961-1962, the German Club of John Marshall has expanded to include a second section. The common goal of the two clubs is to stimulate interest in the German language and customs, thereby increasing enrollment in the German classes.

The German Club II set great goals for the 1961-1962 school term. The main goal was to stimulate John Marshall pupils to a new interest in German. To do this, the German Clubs have undertaken the following projects. An old-fashioned car was decorated for the parade at the T.J.-J.M. game, a paper drive was sponsored to raise money for our "Help the Hop" campaign, and posters were distributed to all homerooms during Foreign Language Week. At the Christmas party, carols were sung in German, and German pastries were enjoyed by all members.

Members of German Club 1 have selected topics concerning Germany. They have secured information on these subjects and have related this to other members of the club. Movies were shown which described Germany's comeback after the war and the rural life and the customs of the German people. German Club I also joined in the parade at the T.J.-J.M. game, having an old fire engine with the plan of "putting out T.J.'s fire."

Open wide

The John Marshall Chapter of the Junior Red Cross is designed to help those who are unable to help themselves. It strives to promote good will throughout the world and to lend a helping hand to all those in need.

Through their projects, both in and out of school, members of the Junior Red Cross carry out their motto, "We Serve." As stated in his pledge, each member believes "in service to others for our country, our community, and in our school; in health of mind and body to fit us for greater service; and in working for better human relations throughout the world." The representatives from each homeroom willingly work together to carry out the many worthwhile projects. The year was begun with the annual membership drive. Part of the money collected from the drive goes to fill gift boxes for needy children in foreign lands. In addition to this drive, many members of the Junior Red Cross give their services as "nurses aids" in many of the city's hospitals.

While helping others, the needy in our own school are not forgotten. This organization supplies bus tickets or lunch money to worthwhile students who find themselves short on funds from time to time.

So, day by day in these ways and many others, the Junior Red Cross of John Marshall serves its community, its school, and creates good will in foreign lands.

Future Medical Careers

The purpose of the Future Medical Careers Club is to further the interests of John Marshall girls who plan to enter a field of medicine and to serve others.

During the school year, the Club tried to carry out its purpose by having many worth-while and interesting programs on the various aspects of medical careers.

The F.M.C.C. also made several field trips, one of which was to the Richmond Nursing Home. There, after a tour of the buildings, the members divided into groups of three or four and chose a patient whom they would visit each week. Another field trip was made to the University of Virginia School of Nursing, where those present learned what nursing life is like.

Later in the year the Club had a rummage sale to raise money for the use of future members.

The year was climaxed by the annual banquet attended by members of Future Medical Careers Clubs throughout the city and surrounding area. Pins were presented to the girls who had attended 75 per cent of the meetings.

The Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization of business students organized for the purpose of developing character, training for useful citizenship, and fostering patriotism.

Members of the John Marshall FBLA participate in the various contests held at the regional convention in Roanoke, and at the national convention in St. Louis, Missouri.

This year the FBLA has been outstanding in citizenship. The FBLA members have worked on projects for the school, the P.T.A., the office, the Alumni Association, and the teachers. Many students have volunteered their time for service to the school and the community.

The meetings are conducted according to correct parliamentary procedure. Representatives from the business world have spoken at these meetings and explained business operations and job opportunities. These meetings are of interest for both the members and the other business students.

Tomorrow's business leaders are the Future Business Leaders of America.

"Earning while learning" is the motto of Mr. Carl Jorgensen's Vocational Office Training Class. The students in V.O.T. attend school part of the day and work the remaining in a business office. They earn two points a semester: one in classroom instruction and one in work experience.

Vocational Office Training affords actual work experience and helps the students in preparing for a career in the business world. By work training, a senior can discover his interests and abilities for employment. This class also teaches students the correct use of business machines.

Advantages of V.O.T. include the opportunity for full-time employment upon graduation and early promotional advance. Members also participate in such business activities as the Future Business Leaders of America, an organization working for greater leadership in business. Students taking Vocational Office Training gain not only confidence but also a feeling of satisfaction from working.

The Distributive Education Club is a professional organization open to all students who are majoring in Distributive Education. A D.E. Student works on a part-time co-operative training program, attending school part of the day and working in distributive occupations (retail, wholesale, and service fields) a minimum of fifteen hours a week. The in-store experience is considered a laboratory exercise related to classroom instruction. The course is a training ground for supplementing the growing demand today for young executives. Salesmanship, advertising, retail math, human relations, stockkeeping, speech, applied psychology, commercial law, and merchandise information are among the topics covered in the classroom.

This year the D.E. Club members attended a district D.E. Convention in Hopewell and a state D.E. Convention in Richmond. The club conducted approximately fifteen field trips through local businesses and manufactories. Many business meetings, some being joint meetings with other D.E. groups in Richmond, were held. Many influential members of the business community addressed these meetings. Several socials were held, but the largest event was the annual employer-employee banquet. This event takes place each year so that the D.E. Club members have a chance to show their appreciation for the assistance given to them in their training program.

Perhaps the club is best typified by its diamond shaped pin and emblem. The four points of the diamond represent vocational competence, economic literacy, social intelligence, and leadership. The wrapped package in the center of the pin signifies a job well done.

The Industrial Co-operative Training program (formerly Diversified Occupation) at John Marshall High School is designed to offer qualified students an opportunity to prepare themselves for a specific trade or occupation through part-time employment while still in school.

The program has operated through an agreement with the employers, school, parents, and students. Qualified students are placed in one of several approved occupations, where their employers co-operate with the school and serve as the students' training agency. Much care and thought is given to the satisfactory placement of each student. The student works a minimum of three hours a day, five days a week, on the job along with one hour of class instruction and two hours of subjects required for graduation. The student receives pay and credit towards graduation for his time spent on the job.

Some of the occupations held this year are: Long distance operator, dental assistant, film technician, stock boy, mixer and bakers' helper (bakery), multigraph operator, general mechanic, shipping clerk, and draftsman.

Activities of the Industrial Co-operative Training Program this year were: the Annual State Convention and District VI Convention; the Annual Employer-Employee Banquet; and participation in a bowling league.

The John Marshall Choir maintains a membership of fifty to sixty singers each year, depending on the number of available competent students and their freedom to schedule rehearsals without conflict with other subjects. Students are selected on the basis of vocal ability, musicianship, and seniority, as well as qualities of cooperation and dependability.

The organization is the principal performing choral group of John Marshall High School. Along with the Girls' Chorus, the Choir represents John Marshall at functions in the school or community when the services of such an organization are required. Rehearsals are held daily during regularly scheduled class period.

Each season several ensembles are formed from among the membership of the choir. These include the Marshall Singers, The Boys' Quartet, and the Ritual Quartet. The latter group assists at each assembly.

Officers are elected at the beginning of each school year. Their principal function is to assist the director in selecting music for certain programs.

During the school year 1961-62 the Choir sang for the following activities: the Thanksgiving Assembly, the Christmas Assembly, the Easter Assembly, the Spring Concert, and the Baccalaureate and Commencement Services. For the first time in the new school building the choir presented with the orchestra the operetta, H.M.S. Pinafore.

The John Marshall Girls' Chorus maintains a membership of thirty to forty singers each season. Acceptance in this organization is subject to the approval of the director. Students are approved on the basis of vocal ability, musicianship, as well as qualities of cooperation and dependability. Membership is composed largely of freshmen and sophomores, as well as a few juniors and seniors who could not schedule the Choir because of conflicts with other subjects. Many of these girls will be accepted in the Choir next season.

Along with the Choir, this organization represents John Marshall High School at certain functions in the school or community when the services of a choral group are required. Rehearsals are held daily during a regularly scheduled class period.

Each season a small ensemble is formed from among the membership of the Girls' Chorus. This group is called the Marshallettes.

Officers are elected at the beginning of each school year, a president and one representative from each section of the chorus.

During the school year 1961-1962, the Girls' Chorus sang for the following activities: the Christmas Assembly, the Easter Assembly, and the Spring Concert.

Representatives leaving for Virginia State String Orchestra

The orchestra of John Marshall High School had a very interesting and fruitful year.

Mr. Paul J. Cartwright, the director, is assistant principal of the 'cello section in the Richmond Symphony.

Chris Teal, one of the members, was in the Richmond Symphony. Another player, Kathy Burley, was concert mistress of the orchestra which accompanied the play, "Paint Your Wagon." Others were participants in outside groups such as the Chamber Orchestra at the University of Richmond, the R.P.I. Orchestra, and the All-State Band and String Festivals.

The addition of the stereo record player helped enrich their knowledge of famous and beautiful music.

In order to give them some experience in playing in front of an audience and to broaden their interest in music, some of the members gave a recital for the other players each month. To help the young musicians to understand how the music was to be played, Mr. Cartwright played records of pieces which the orchestra was studying.

At the home of Jimmy Overton, one of the players, a delightful Christmas party was held for the group.

Both a spring concert and an operetta were being considered for the main event of the year.

The Christian Youth League

The Christian Youth League, organized many years ago at John Marshall High School, has been re-activated at the new John Marshall. Students of all denominations are welcome as members. We strive to promote a deeper understanding of others, the value of a fine character and most of all, the need of God and His Church in our daily lives. Meetings are held on Wednesday mornings at 8:15. The league has adopted four elderly women patients at Terrace Hill Nursing Home and will attempt, through such projects, to bring joy into their own hearts in service to others.

The Christian Youth League fills a great need in our school. It is a stimulant to those who walk in the Master's footsteps and it is an incentive to those who seek a better way of life. The membership of the league is small, but we feel that its influence can be widespread. Students need God daily and hourly. They need an ally, a friend in happiness and in sorrow, a constant companion who lifts one ever upward, following the gleam which leads toward the full life of the Christian.

Elizabeth, Sandra, and Jeannie join in song.

The John Marshall Science Club was newly formed this year for those Marshallites who were interested in science. The club was organized in three groups: physics, chemistry, and biology. Each group chose a project which would be both educational and interesting and upon which the members could work during the regular weekly meetings. The meetings were conducted with the guidance of Mr. Donald Sharp and Miss Maridel Bugg, who acted as faculty sponsors during the term.

The club members were treated to several fascinating scientific demonstrations performed by fellow members. One such exhibit was the operation of a Wilson's cloud chamber by Eugene Brooks and James Kambourian.

The Science Club attempted to show applications of classroom science by taking field trips to places of interest. The club visited the radio broadcasting studio at the Union Theological Seminary in Richmond and the radar tracking station at Fort Lee, Virginia. Both trips rewarded the participants many times over for their trouble.

When the school sponsored a drive for a foreign student, the Science Club donated generously to the cause. It displayed school spirit earlier in the year by preparing an attractive float for the homecoming student parade.

It is sincerely hoped that more and more interest will be shown in the coming years, and that the roles of the club will swell with the names of student scientists.

Library Aides

Members of the Library Staff, a school service group, are students who volunteer to devote a part of each school day to assisting in routine duties of the library. Any student who can meet certain scholastic requirements and standards of efficiency is eligible for membership. Since its objectives are realized through actual experience and service on the part of each member, this group has no officers or scheduled meetings.

Each student is trained individually in library techniques in order that he may perform his duties more effectively. The only training period of the year is at the beginning of the fall term, and no additions to the Staff are made after this initial training.

By means of a rotating schedule, the responsibility of each person varies from day to day to include the checking of permits, charging and slipping books, collecting fines, shelving books, and running errands.

Service credits are given Aides who have performed their duties satisfactorily, and at the Awards Assembly in the spring they receive service award certificates if they have sufficient credits.

The assistance given other students and the service rendered to the school, together with the information acquired in connection with library techniques, combine to make participation as a student Library Aide an invaluable experience.

Chess Club

The John Marshall Chess Club, revived last year after a decade of non-existence, has been built up so successfully that anyone must agree it is one of the strongest clubs in the Richmond area.

Although the Chess Club has played only one meet as this is written, this one meet was won, six games to five, and which claimed the city championship. Further meets are scheduled during the year, and a formal league is new being considered by various school administrators.

Much of the success of the Chess Club is due to the efforts of its sponsor, Mr. I. A. Yacenko, the Russian teacher, and to the club's policy of admitting anyone with interest, regardless of ability. This policy provides an almost endless supply of members, since those who have been instructed in the rudiments of the game can instruct those who have not.

The class of drama began in 1924 at the old John Marshall and in 1938 became a regular part of the speech course. Now divorced from the curriculum, study in this area is delegated to the Drama Club, which was formed at the request of interested students.

Their meetings, held on alternate Mondays, included charades, skits, and impersonations in an attempt to build up ease before an audience and to practice self expression. Toward the end of the year these skills were incorporated in the presentation of one-act plays.

As a participant in activities beyond the realm of drama, the club sponsored a car in the annual Tee Jay-Jayem parade and contributed to the Help-the-Hop Fund.

Quill and Scroll

Sponsor .... Miss Mary Gladys Lambert

The John Marshall Chapter of Quill and Scroll is one of 5,000 such chapters located throughout the United States, as well as in England, China, Cuba, Canada, and Australia. In 1926 this chapter had its beginning at John Marshall, where a charter was granted in 1930. Being an international honorary society for high school journalists, Quill and Scroll requires that a high school publish a newspaper, yearbook, or magazine judged to be of considerable merit by the executive council, before being granted a charter. Through this organization, which is the only international organization at John Marshall, the efforts of individual contributors of time and service to the school publications are realized.

The following are the specific qualifications necessary for a prospective member:

1. He must be a junior or a senior.
2. He must rank in the upper third of his class in general scholastic standing.
3. He must do superior work in the fields of writing, editing, or business management.
4. He must be approved by the Executive Secretary of the society.

In addition, the John Marshall Chapter requires that a student have at least 100 inches of copy or advertisements published in The Monocle or have sold $100 worth of advertisements for The Marshallite.

In order to run the organization effectively, the nation is divided into six sections, each of which is represented by one officer; however, there is no national convention because the chapters are so widely scattered. George Gallup became the first Executive Secretary of this society, which was founded in 1926 to serve as an incentive to young journalists and writers. The Monocle has been the recipient of the Gallup Award seven times since that time. At the present time, Lester G. Benz serves as the Executive Secretary.

The society not only encourages individual achievement, but also supplies valuable information concerning publishing through it's magazine, published four times yearly. Through the criticisms that it sponsors, Quill and Scroll enables a publication to improve itself. Helping to organize state press associations and familiarizing the public with the value of high school journalism are two more important functions.

The Monocle

Editor-in-Chief .... Drew Edwards

The function of a school newspaper is to aid the school and the pupils. Probably the most important functions are to report school news, to express school opinion, and to promote the achievements of the school. Qther functions include informing the communities as to the work of the school, helping unify the school, and increasing school spirit. Aside from being valuable to the school itself, a school newspaper is of great value to the pupils who work on the paper. It provides an opportunity for interesting writing and helps develop qualities of co-operation, tact, accuracy, tolerance, responsibility, initiative, and leadership. It also offers training in organization, business methods, commercial art, salesmanship, bookkeeping and business management.

The MONOCLE, John Marshall's bi-weekly newspaper, has done the foregoing things for the school and pupils. For instance, the MONOCLE won the Gallup Award, which is one of the highest awards of Quill and Scroll, the International Honor Society for High School Journalists, for its news coverage and editorial support of the activities of the Student Cooperative Association of John Marshall. The MONOCLE also keeps the school informed of club activities, improvements of the school, and school policies. This year, the MONOCLE even carried stories on the bell system and heating plant.

The MONOCLE has expressed student opinions and school regulations through its editorials, opinion columns, features, and regular columns.

Last year the MONOCLE won three outstanding awards. In addition to the Gallup Award mentioned previously, the paper won International Honor Rating from Quill and Scroll. From the Columbia Scholastic Press Association the MONOCLE received the award of Medalist which is the highest award given by Columbia. The All Columbia Honor for its editorials was awarded to the MONOCLE by Columbia, also. Out of 1676 entries, the Jayem paper was chosen as one of six excelling in the field of editorials.

From the Southern Interscholastic Press Association, the MONOCLE won the Honor Rating. The MONOCLE also received a Superior rating from the Virginia High School League.

The Marshallite

This year the MARSHALLITE Staff moved from the publication room to Unit 3. This change of location, although distressing to the Homemaking Department, seemed to have no ill effects on the MARSHALLITE Staff.

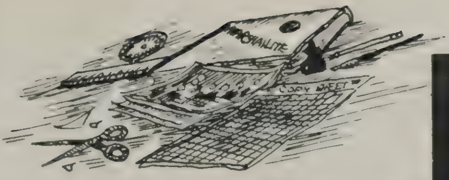
Working with Tanga Dickerson, editor-in-chief of the 1962 MARSHALLITE, were Lois Goodson, associate editor; Greg Sheehan, business manager; Betsy Spencer, art editor; and Larry Philbrick, staff photographer. Everyday during sixth period the staff, encouraged by Mrs. Mary Burnett, faculty advisor, and Mrs. Eva Verelle, business advisor, worked energetically to meet their deadlines. The staff also met every Thursday night at school with Mr. Irv Schatzle, who has been a great help. At these important meetings countless details were taken care of, pictures were cropped, and layouts were planned.

Staff members were busy during the summer and early fall renewing old ads and searching for new advertisers. To make the staff, forty dollars' worth of ads had to be sold. By selling fifty dollars' worth, a MARSHALLITE pin could be earned. A few eager beavers sold one hundred dollars' worth, entitling them to free annual and membership in Quill and Scroll. With the combined efforts of the staff members and the helpful MARSHALLITE representatives, the goal set for ads was reached.

The Taylor Publishing Company printed our yearbook this year. A representative from the company, Mr. Neil Frank, often visited the staff and offered some very helpful suggestions for improving the yearbook.

Let's be different!

Mrs. Vaughan corrects copy



Mass Confusion!

Quick! What's my name?

Mr. Frank Akers gave assistance to the art editor in planning the art work to be used in each section. Mrs. E. T. Vaughan proofread copy for the MARSHALLITE this year. The MARSHALLITE Staff is very grateful to all who contributed their time and efforts to the yearbook.

Throughout the year several parties were held, and Unit 3 was transformed from a workroom into a gay party room. In appreciation for all the work done by Mrs. Burnett and Mrs. Verelle, a party at Christmastime was held. In early February a second party was given by the staff in the form of a baby shower for Mrs. Joyce Woolcott who was adopting a baby. Meeting deadlines provided another excuse for giving a party. Everyone enjoyed these breaks after a hard day's work.

The 1961 annual, receiving 922 points out of a possible 1,000, was awarded the Medalist rating. It is hoped that the 1962 MARSHALLITE will bring even greater honor to the school.

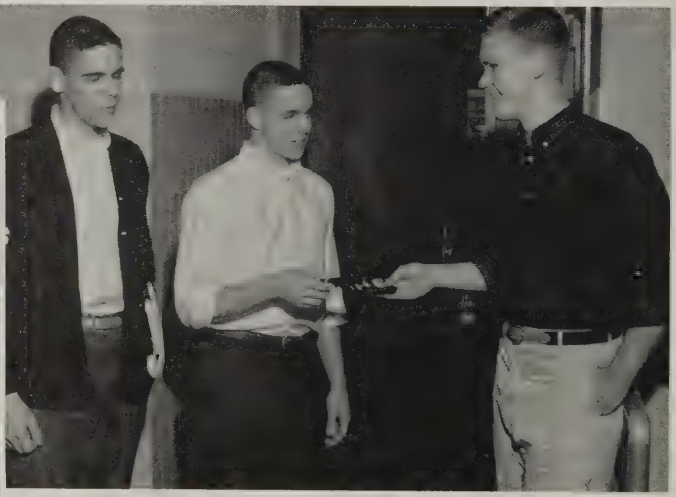
The John Marshall Hi-Y is a voluntary club program for boys in high school, sponsored by the Young Men's Christian Association. Its name is a contraction of the term "high school Y.M.C.A." The Hi-Y movement is international in scope, Christian in emphasis, interdenominational in character, and democratic in purpose.

The purpose is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school, home and community, high standards of Christian Character." The four planks of the Hi-Y program are: clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living.

Members of Hi-Y are expected to strive towards these objectives in everything they do and to show leadership in the school and community by personal example to others.



That's the spirit, men!

The Key Club is a school service organization composed of thirty-five boys from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes. Members are recommended by the faculty on the basis of scholarship and leadership. The organization is sponsored by the Richmond Kiwanis Club.

Mr. James C. Harwood, Jr. serves as faculty sponsor, as he has for the past fifteen years. The club meets alternately at school and the Second Baptist Church, with a supper served at the church. Programs are varied and interesting with one each month about a certain vocation.

The Key Club sponsors projects to raise funds and promote school spirit.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association, since its founding in 1949, has provided an organization open to all girls of John Marshall interested in physical activity through sports, games, or dancing. Since the fall of 1960, G.A.A. has also sponsored girls' varsity sports.

The G.A.A. began its year with meetings after school on the first and third Mondays of each month. The new sponsorship of the club was taken by Miss Sandra Weeks, assisted by Miss Helen McKenney, the club's original founder. One of the first meetings was a party given by the officers of G.A.A. to introduce the club to new girls and to explain its background and activities, which include horseback riding, bowling, archery, basketball, and apparatus.

Early in the fall, the members decided to continue the practice of having Blue and White teams. Each girl was placed on one of the teams, which competed to gain the largest number of G.A.A. points earned in after school participation.

The annual G.A.A. Talent Show was presented this year on November 17 and 18 in the school auditorium with a spaceman theme, "Destination Earth." The show was the club's principal fund raising event of the year. Proceeds were used to finance varsity sports, activities, and the annual May Day.

At Christmas, the team with the least points, the White team, gave a party for the winners, the Blues, with refreshments provided by the losers.

May Day this year, presented on the school lawn, was a colorful event, highlighting the queen and her court. The queen was elected from the senior girls, with all grades represented in the court.

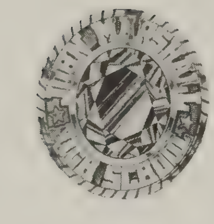
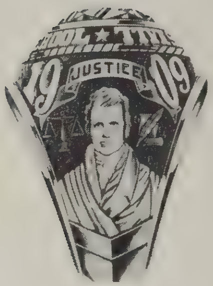
THE NEW JOHN MARSHALL STANDARD CLASS RING





Created Especially

for John Marshall

by Dieges and Clust

The Ring Committee

John Marshall High School has its first standardized ring this year. (This picture shows the design created by Dieges & Clust Company for John Marshall.)

A committee of students and counselors worked with Mr. Bud Shafer, the representative from Dieges & Clust. Mrs. Ellen Chewning, sophomore counselor, was sponsor. She was helped by Miss Frances Bray, junior counselor, and Mr. Robert Turner, freshman counselor. Dickie (or Enders) Dickinson and Janice Hamblet represented the freshman class; Lois Miles, Frank Angus, Terry Cox, and Larry Koch, the sophomore class; and Ann Wortham, chairman of the Ring Committee, Ann Winfree, Lucy Marshall, Susan Monaghan, and George Littlefield, the junior class.

John Marshall is the first high school to use the new fire-blue spinel stone. The two sides of the ring represent the tradition and the goals of today.

Juniors are measured for the first standardized rings.

"It's High Time to Get Acquainted."

The P.T.A. has been an active organization of 1,000 members dedicated to the principles of human values: spiritual faith, sound health, good homes, safety, civic responsibility, international understanding, constructive leisure, educational opportunity, and vocational competence. The administration, faculty, and parents have cooperatively enjoyed this year of working together for the welfare of our youth.

The program theme for the second year of the P.T.A. has been "It's High Time . . ." It's High time for the students . . . , that is, when they are entering high school with all its new experiences and opportunities, or when they are returning to high school, with each year bringing them nearer to college or the working world . . . Then it is "high time" for us, as parents and teachers, to give them encouragement and understanding, and to grow with our responsibilities. The programs provided opportunities for parents to get acquainted with the academic and extracurricular program and teachers for each grade level to understand the emotional problems of the adolescent, to know more about our state's educational program and services, to see demonstrations of new techniques in teaching, and, finally, to act with evidence of our appreciation of freedom and democratic citizenship.

It has been "High Time" to understand youth, ourselves, and high school. We have enjoyed working together.

John Marshall Evening School

The John Marshall Evening School had its beginning October 16, 1911, when Mr. W. C. Locker accepted an invitation from Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, then Superintendent of Schools, to come to Richmond from Roanoke to organize the evening school and introduce handwriting in the public schools of Richmond.

This evening school has been the tangible expression, on the part of the School Board, of a desire to offer everyone in the Richmond area an opportunity to use his or her evenings for educational advancement and vocational improvement. The beginning was modest—only three teachers the first night—which, however, increased to several times this number before the end of the year. Through the entire fifty-one years, the policy of the School Board has been not only liberal, but also consistently progressive, offering instruction in any subject when the number applying would justify it.

John Marshall Evening School offers each year a variety of courses to its approximately one thousand students currently enrolled.

A number of students lacking only a few points to graduate have earned sufficient credits by evening study to obtain their diplomas from John Marshall, Thomas Jefferson, George Wythe, or some other high school. However, the purpose of the evening school is not only to provide educational opportunities for students who have not completed requirements for graduation but also to enable high school and college graduates to take courses for pleasure, profit, and relaxation, which is evidenced by the fact that 1,681 high school graduates and 278 college graduates have attended during the last five years.

Since a number of your friends and neighbors are living richer, more dynamic and constructive lives as a result of participating in our program, we invite you to make full use of the opportunities available in our school.

John Marshall Summer School

The summer school program began in Richmond in 1911 when students were allowed to attend elementary and high school classes without payment of tuition. As an economy move in 1933, free vacation schools were discontinued and a tuition summer school for high school students was established at John Marshall. In 1945 elementary classes beginning with the sixth grade were also offered at John Marshall Summer School. The Remedial Reading Center was made a part of the summer session in 1955. Since the first tuition summer school, enrollment has grown from 342 students to nearly 3,000 representing more than one hundred schools.

When the two new high school buildings were completed in 1961, summer school classes were offered in all three high schools. In recent years fourth, fifth, and sixth grade classes were added and located in several elementary schools and the Reading Center was moved to Albert H. Hill Junior High School.

Students enroll for enrichment, special subjects, remedial work, and acceleration. In addition to regular academic work in English, mathematics, history, science, French, Latin, and Spanish, classes in typewriting, personal typewriting, art, instrumental music, and industrial arts are offered. In this way students may enrich their high school programs by taking subjects which they cannot take during the regular school year. Students may repeat a subject that has been failed while capable students may accelerate their high school program. In some cases, students enroll to review a subject to gain a better knowledge of that subject. Not only do those now in school attend, but post graduates, college students, and adults enroll to gain high school credits or broaden their experiences.

In the past few years there has been an increased interest in summer school and the enthusiasm of students in taking new work has accounted for the great growth in the enrollment.

John Marshall Athletic Club

The 1960-61 athletes started their season at the new J.M. gymnasium. At the same time a new look was given to the Dads' Club; the dads invited the mothers to work with them. First, of course, the name had to be changed. That's how the Dads' Club became the John Marshall Athletic Club. As written in their Constitution, the object of this club is to promote and support football, basketball, and other sports. We want not only to reward our athletes but also to encourage them by attending the games.

In September of 1960 the club started with a handful of members and about $2 in the treasury. Nevertheless, before the school year was over, it had given two banquets, one for the football team and one for the basketball team. It awarded each member of these teams with a trophy and presented each cheerleader with a memento.

In September of 1961 the organization really started to grow, and, as of February, 1962, it had 54 paid family memberships, plus many others who are in sympathy with its aims. The treasury has a comfortable balance and a feeling of satisfaction for a job well done.

On November 29, 1961, a banquet was given for the football team, and 246 people attended. A Winter Sports Banquet was given for the basketball and wrestling teams. Near the end of the school term a Spring Sports Banquet, or Outing, honored the baseball and track teams.

Cheerleaders at football banquet

J.V. cheerleaders at John Marshall Athletic Club banquet

There has been a noticeable increase in school spirit this year, compared to last year; and many more parents are attending J.M. games. We hope the John Marshall Athletic Club has had some small part in this. We expect the enthusiasm to grow each year and shall put forth every effort to see that it does.

We urge all parents of athletes and cheerleaders, and all others who are interested, to join the John Marshall Athletic Club. You have no idea how much personal satisfaction you will experience, how many new friends you will make, and how much fun you will have by taking part in the club's activities.

PHILOSOPHY TO FOLLOW

"Take time to work.
It is the price of success.
Take time to think.
It is the source of power.
Take time to play.
It is the secret of youth.
Take time to laugh.
It lightens life's load.
Take time to plan,
and you will have time for all the rest."

A new era in John Marshall's ninety-year history began in September 1960. The new Jayem has adapted to many changes during its first two years. Students who formerly attended other schools have become a real part of John Marshall High School, its Corps, and other activities.

The first class was graduated from the new corps last June. They with the Class of 1962 presented a portrait of Lt. Howard T. Moss to the Corps upon his retirement in September.

Cadet alumni have contributed their time and interest toward the encouragement of a strong Corps of Cadets by a renewing of the old Jayem ties. During the year alumni, working with Dr. Fred Dixon, arranged to have the stone ball and some of the old J.M. steps from the Marshall Street entrance moved to the parade field. The field was appropriately named "Alumni Field" by the school board following a request from the Corps.

Meetings of the association have served as a time for alumni fellowship and the recognition of those in charge of Corps activities: Lt. Moss, Lt. Roger W. Spencer, and Miss Elsie McClintic. Memorial swords now number ten and other new projects are being planned for the Corps' Fiftieth Anniversary in 1965.

THE HONOR COURT

President	C. Wayne Fuquay
Judge Advocate	Gordon F. Creasy
Secretary	Robert L. Gordon
Sergeant-at-Arms	George F. Jacob

Honesty is the only lasting foundation upon which trust and friendship can be built. Every organization must have an honor system of some kind for it to be strong, lasting, and respected. The Honor System of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets is designed to instill in the cadet a true sense of the Corps' motto "Duty, Honor, Country," and to further the desire of each cadet to develop a personal feeling of self-respect and pride. In order to achieve this goal, each cadet must resolve to implant these standards within himself; for the system of honor is the very life of the corps, the foundation for its system of training, and the support upon which rests the morale and spirit so prominent in the Corps of Cadets. In any case in which the honor or character of a cadet, or the honor or well-being of the corps as a whole is in any way involved, the Honor Court shall consider the act as one reflecting the code of a gentleman and render its decision accordingly. The court consists of the First Captain, Company Commanders, and others the court sees fit to elect by unanimous decision. The total membership is not to exceed thirteen.

THE GENERAL COMMITTEE

President	Russell H. Sherry
Vice-President	Paul L. Harris, Jr.
Secretary	David A. Dunville
Sergeant-at-Arms	James A. Bowen

In accordance with the Honor Court, the General Committee is organized to guard and maintain the high standards of "Honor, Conduct, Appearance, and Limits" that the Corps holds in high esteem. Through personal influence, the committee tries to instill in the cadet a strong Corps Spirit rather than individual company spirit.

The General Committee consists of the president, vice-president, secretary, and other cadets whom the committee sees fit to choose. The membership is not to exceed fifteen.

The oath that each member of the Committee takes is as follows: "As a member of the General Committee, I will dedicate myself to the preservations of the Standards in the Corps of Cadets. I will serve the interests of the Corps, striving to improve it in all aspects. I will investigate and report for action any breach of the Standards of the Corps which comes to my attention. By my influence and personal conduct, it will endeavor to stay in the Corps as a whole, a strong type of Corps Spirit, rather than the less important company feelings. I will forego all company allegiance wherever it would conflict with the purpose of this organization in the desire to fully establish and maintain the highest Standards within the Corps of Cadets. To all this I certify on my Honor."

JAMES B. WALTHALL
Our Friend-Jim

For a person who was never a member of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets, Jim Walthall is a most amazing fellow. He has been the number one friend and advisor of the Corps for the past fifteen years. Jim helped organize the Cadet Alumni Association with Colonel Earl Brown in 1947 and has served as secretary-treasurer and president of this group. He was assistant commandant at John Marshall for two years, 1951-1952, with Commandant William Kelly. Since that time, Jim has almost a one hundred per cent attendance record for all Corps functions: parties, hops, drills, and banquets.

Jim is the public relations officer, photographer, and peacemaker of the present day Corps. His advice is often requested and always respected on any Corps problem. He has met and befriended hundreds of Cadets over the years and knows them all by name. He can rarely walk a hundred yards down Broad Street without meeting a Corps alumnus who remembers him from way back when. Jim gives continually to a Cadet Corps which must often change its commandants within a short period. He is the difference between an average Corps and one which is ever improving to retain its most apt description, "Best anywhere." It is with great devotion and affection that we dedicate this section of the Marshallite to one who will always be in the hearts of all Cadets and Sponsors, JIM WALTHALL.

THE RECRUIT COURT

President	James E. Giovannetti
Vice-President	Upton S. Martin
Judge Advocate	Author L. Howle

The Recruit Court was first organized in 1945 to give special attention to the newest members of the Corps, the recruits. The court is composed of first and second classmen whose duty it is to see that the recruits receive proper instruction and discipline during their first term. Another duty is to try recruits for breaches of Corps regulations and to handle punitive measures.

Each member of the court has a personal responsibility to set a standard of perfection that the recruits may follow. Since each new recruit class is the life blood of the Corps, proper instruction and discipline are essential for the continuance of the high standards expected of each cadet throughout his four years in the Corps of Cadets.

THE HOP COMMITTEE

The Hop Committee is an organization composed of volunteers from each company and the Band. Each cadet is placed into one of the smaller groups with a specific job to do. Various groups are in charge of bandstand, lighting, ceiling, floor and balcony, guest box, and the invitation committee. The cadets of the Hop Committee can be justly proud of their efforts toward making the Ball a successful affair.

FOOTBALL

The Justices began their season as a question mark despite the fact that they inherited experience and many lettermen from the previous year. The Big Blue, using its experience to the best advantage, shot forth with a blasting attack on the George Wythe Bulldogs, defeating them 23-0. The first touchdown of the season was set up by good blocking from the big end, Bob Andrews, and was carried through by fullback Whitaker.

BOB ANDREWS
Co-Captain

This game was followed by a 0-0 deadlock with Petersburg, the Justices almost hitting pay dirt four times. Against the district champions, Highland Springs, Bobby Mudd scored the first and only touchdown on a pass thrown down the middle from Winston. Mudd stopped many a Springer run to the outside, and Spangler and Andrews helped keep the Springers in check. Ending a seven year victory famine, Jayem triumphed over the Lancers in a 6-0 game with the score coming from an 85 yard drive in the second period. The Hermitage game, twice postponed because of bad weather, was John Marshall's most discouraging defeat, ending with a score of 33-7. In the tussle with the Freeman Rebels, the Justices proved to be a tough opponent. Although a Rebel victory, Jayem made a strong attempt with Whitaker scoring twice, each time on a 60-yard run. The game with Hopewell was a disappointment to the Justices who scored only once in the second period, but Spangler's usual good placement improved the score. After Larry Koch's first period run of 46 yards against Thomas Dale, Kendall Whitaker's touchdowns, one in each of the last three quarters, kept Jayem in front all the way. The victory sparked the fire which sent the Big Blue romping over Thomas Jefferson in the annual clash between the long-standing rivals. Larry Koch streaked 85 yards for a touchdown with the opening kick off, and Jayem never trailed. The tally for this 31 year rivalry now reads: Jayem 14 wins—Teejay 12 wins—5 ties.

At the annual banquet sponsored by the John Marshall Athletic Club, letters were given to the outstanding players, and each cheerleader received an award. Individual awards were given to David Wilkinson, Most Valuable Player; Bob Andrews, Best Defensive Player; and Kendall Whitaker, Best Offensive Player. At the Team Appreciation Dance, given by the Key Club, Bobby Mudd won the Most Outstanding Player Award. Central District awards were as follows: first team, Bob Andrews; second team, Kendall Whitaker; honorable mention, Bobby Mudd, Ned Hensley, and David Wilkinson. Bob Andrews also made the All-Metropolitan first team, Whitaker, the second team, and Bobby Mudd and David Wilkinson received honorable mention.

The Justices got off to a good start this year by defeating Lane 67-46 and went on to be one of the best teams in the district, tying with Hermitage for the Metro title.

Following the Lane game, the Justices beat the Hopewell Blue Devils 72-62. Jayem then met with its first defeat of the season, bowing to the Panthers of Hermitage High. Jayem encountered its first "close" game of the year when Highland Springs was edged by the Justices 49-47. After this exciting game, came the romp over the Thomas Dale Knights 74-29. Another close game for Jayem was the Manchester game where the Justices came out on top 64-62. Following was the third nerve-racking game of the season with a defeat over the Freeman Rebels (54-53).

Jayem, playing in their first over-time of the year, lost to Hopewell 53-51 with one second left in the over-time. The Justices then warmed up for the T.J. game by stopping George Wythe. In the Thomas Jefferson game, C. G. Winston and Phil Enroughty closed out their scholastic careers, but not before the Big Blue stomped the Jeffs 72-45.

In Jayem's first afternoon game in many years, the Crimson Wave of Petersburg High was defeated 44-42. Hermitage then broke through again and beat the Justices. Douglas Freeman suffered their second defeat at the hands of the Justices (48-40).

The Springers took advantage of an off night for the Justice shooters and went on to a victory over Jayem. Jayem routed George Wythe by a convincing score of 72-53 in the next game.

John Marshall closed out its regular season with a 54-46 victory over its arch-rival, Thomas Jefferson, with an excellent record of 12-4 in regular season play and a 13-6 record over-all.

John Marshall was defeated in the semi-finals of the Central District Tournament by a "hot" Springer team, after defeating Lane in the opener. John Marshall again was handed a defeat at the hands of the Hermitage Panthers in the consolation game. The tournament was high-lighted by John Marshall's winning the WLEE Sportsmanship Trophy for the year. Key-man David Parker won first team honors on the All-Metro team while sharpshooter C. G. Winston placed on the second team. On the All-Central District Basketball team from Jayem were David Parker and C. G. Winston, first team. John Marshall placed David Parker on the All Tournament first team and speedy Massie Childress on the second team.

Sponsored by the J.M. Athletic Club, the annual banquet was held on March 21 at the Westwood Club. The team and cheerleaders both received awards.

TRACK

The John Marshall track team opened its regular season on March 29 at Manchester. Only four lettermen returned from the 1961 squad. They were Larry Koch, Kendall Whitaker, Bob Andrews, and Tommy Huf. Track coach for the 1962 season was Wynn Gregory.

Andrews, Bobby Mudd, and Kenny Angus were outstanding in the weight events. Leaders in the high jump were Koch and Mike Alexander, while Alexander and freshman Gene Hare led in the broad jump.

Billy Pollard, Whitaker, and Koch were the leading runners in the dashes. In the distant runs Huf, Waters, Whiting, and Howe were outstanding. Mudd and Hare were top-notch hurdlers.

WRESTLING

This was the first official year for the John Marshall Wrestling Team. Under the direction of Ronald Reynolds and Lt. Roger Spencer, the team ended the season with a final record of two wins and three losses. Five scrimages made a total of ten matches.

The boys were rightfully proud of their coaches. Coach Reynolds gained many honors while wrestling in the South Pacific. Lt. Spencer obtained his wrestling experience during his "rat" year at V.M.I.

The twelve weight classes ranged from the 95 pound group, which included A. C. Taylor, to the 180 pound and over (unlimited class), which included Lloyd Spangler weighing 213 pounds. These boys comprised two teams which worked hard every afternoon—sometimes staying until after six o'clock—running, lifting weights, and wrestling. This rugged routine paid off in the end. In the first match against Freeman's second team, the Jayem "Grapplers" were shut out 43-0; in the second match with this team, John Marshall won.

David Basto and Ned Hensley served as team co-captains. The season was climaxed with a night match against St. Christopher's on March 2 and a banquet on March 21.

Come on, A. C., let's dance.

MIKE BACHE, Captain

Greatly improved over last year, the John Marshall baseball team began practicing early in March in spite of late snow storms. Experience was the greatest asset of the Justices with lettermen, Mike Bache, Jimmy Gregg, Kendall Whitaker, Lloyd Spangler, Tubby Wilkinson, Glenn Reynolds, Tommy Yeager, Steve Fornash, and Billy Pollard, returning. Southpaw Mike Bache was elected captain of the team.

A tight infield with strong defensive teamwork was the backbone of the Blue and White. The versatility of the ballplayers enabled many of them to perform well at different positions. Coaching the squad were Lieutenant Roger Spencer, from Virginia Military Institute, and Ronnie Reynolds, a student coach from Richmond Professional Institute.

HOCKEY

The girls' varsity hockey team defeated Marymount and St. Gertrude and finished the season with a record of two wins and five losses. For the first time, home games were played on the athletic field here at school.

The forward-line members of this team were Judy Pace, left wing; Jo Klein, left inner; and Ann Sibley, right wing. The backfield included Linda Warren, left halfback; Lucy Rose, left fullback; Gerry Edwards, center halfback; Linda Eggleston, right fullback; Suzanne Wood, right halfback; and Carmen Kemp, goalie.

High varsity scorer was Jo Klein with seven points. She was followed by her sister, Pat, with two points.

The junior varsity team completed its season with a record of three wins, three losses, and one tie. The co-captains were Ann Marston and Eleanor Brown.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Lady Justices returned this year with a strong team that worked well under the coaching of Miss Helen McKenney. Linda Warren, Gerry Edwards, Jo Ann Klein, and Judy Pace were returning lettermen from last year's squad. Dinah Cloude, Lucy Rose, Diana ReMine, Susan Shepherd, and Susan Gamble stepped up from the J.V. squad to varsity positions this year.

JO KLEIN

No captains were chosen for the squad, but a different girl served as captain for each game.

The varsity team ended the season with a record of 6 wins against 3 losses. They met defeat in the games with St. Catherine, Tee Jay, and George Wythe. Two practice games were won, and another with St. Patrick ended in a tie.

The junior varsity encountered a season of defeat with only 2 wins against 6 losses. The team, sparked by Tina Prezioso and Chris King, began the season by defeating T.J. but did not win again until another game with T.J. at the end of the season.

HOCKEY AND BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The girls' hockey and basketball teams of John Marshall participated in tournaments with the teams of the area high schools. Each team played a game, and the participants were judged on their performances. Members of the participating schools were chosen for two all-tournament teams. As these were honorary, they played as teams only on the day of the tournament.

The Lady Justices earned two positions on the hockey teams and three of the twelve offered in basketball.

Positions on the hockey teams were obtained by Jo Klein, first honorary team, and Lucy Rose, member of the second honorary team. Jo Klein and Diana ReMine earned positions on the first basketball team. Gerry Edwards obtained a position on the second honorary team. John Marshall is proud of the fine showings these girls made at the tournaments.

The participating schools were John Marshall, George Wythe, Petersburg, Hopewell, St. Catherine, St. Gertrude, Collegiate, and Thomas Jefferson. The hockey tournament was held at Westhampton College and the basketball tournament at Petersburg High School.

Miss Helen McKenney coached both the girls' hockey and basketball teams this year for John Marshall.

TENNIS

In order to expand the opportunities offered in girls' athletics, and due to an increasing demand, a girls' tennis team was organized for the first time this year. A considerable number of girls from each grade turned out to try their luck with a tennis racket. They practiced many afternoons, developing their skills. Under the steady guidance and direction of Miss Helen McKenney, they became proficient in such techniques as serving, backhand, scoring, and placement. In order to progress both as individuals and as a team, they made every effort toward the achievement of their goal—that of making Jayem's first tennis team a memorable success.

Because of the great interest shown by the lower grades, the team will be divided into a varsity and a junior varsity section, each composed of three singles and two doubles. Other members besides those in the picture are: Susan Campbell, Mary Alice Fleming, Gail Hogue, Janice Hamblet, Gayle Proctor, Martha Reynolds, and Joyce York.

Our excellent tennis courts, previously taken advantage of by students and nearby residents in the hours after school, will now become an even more frequented facility. They, in combination with the training the girls will receive, will provide an athletic experience that will remain with these students even after graduation. Many hours of enjoyment and pleasure will surely result from this first effort toward establishing tennis among the school's other team sports.

VARSITY

CHEERLEADERS

This year Jayem had more pep and spirit than ever. This was greatly due to our faithful cheerleaders who met every Monday, Tuesday, and Friday night during the summer at John Marshall. At these practices old cheers were learned.

On September 1, Orientation Day, the twelve-girl squad made their first appearance. They gave a program of school songs and cheers to acquaint the new students with the school and to promote school spirit.

Pep rallies for all football and basketball games were held before school in the mornings prior to the games, excluding the rally for the traditional J.M.-T.J. football game.

This one was held at night in the gym and included songs, cheers, effigies, and the formal presentation of the Miss Justice candidates. One of the highlights of this pep rally was a skunk named Petunia who represented a T.J. football player. During school hours on the days preceding this game with our arch rival, the students could be heard yelling through the halls "Beat T.J.!" These pep rallies really built up spirit in the Jayem students, as well as in the teams.

On November 29, the John Marshall Athletic Club sponsored a banquet honoring our football teams and cheerleaders. Both the Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were presented miniature sterling silver megaphones.

Friendship Circle

Co-Captains: Carol Dunville, Gayle Britton

This year the Junior Varsity cheerleaders had Junior Varsity football and basketball teams for which to cheer. The J.V. football games were played after school and the basketball games just before the Varsity. The J.V. cheerleaders cheered in the stands at the Varsity football games except at the J.M.-T.J. game when they cheered with the varsity during the second half.

Every Marshallite was proud of the outstanding job both Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders did in building up school spirit.

ON THE COURT
On the court, in the stands

Has everybody seen our team?
Blue and White full of fight
You can bet we'll win tonight.
Has everybody seen our team?

We've got the team that is perfection
Can't you see that Justice is for me that's why everybody's watching our Varsity.

With school behind you . . .
what's ahead?

College, perhaps? Wonderful! A job? Wonderful, too, if it's the right one—with opportunities to progress and learn as well as earn. There are many such jobs at C&P, waiting for girls like you. In a telephone job, you not only start with good pay but are specially trained to make more. Raises and advancements are frequent. Surroundings are pleasant—people are friendly—and your work is never dull. Why not make your first job a telephone job—one that can lead to a happy, rewarding career?

SPECIAL REPORT TO YOUNG MEN OF TOMORROW

UNLIMITED OPPORTUNITY

awaits you in the pulp and paper industry

WHERE WILL you go after high school To work? To trade school? To College? For the young man interested in college training, the pulp and paper industry has a continuing need for new technical personnel and offers unlimited opportunities for advancement in this exciting field.

THE SPECTACULAR growth of this industry makes possible top wages and security in a host of highly skilled technical positions. A four-year college education is preferred for such positions as pulp technologists, plant chemists, quality control specialists and production trainees.

SCHOLARSHIP help at North [illegible] College in Raleigh is available for college majors in pulp and paper technology, and highly remunerativ[illegible] within the industry is usually available during the summer vacation periods. Graduates of this program ar[illegible] for quick advancement in production, technical and top management positions within the industry. Applicatio[illegible]p and paper scholarships for the academic year beginning next fall must be made by May 15.

IF YOU are a young man in high school who has above average grades in math, physics, chemistry and related subjects, we urge you to contact us or your Guidance Coordinator. We will gladly explain to you in detail about the opportunities awaiting you in this fascinating industry.

THIS IS YOUR LIFE

It's a successful life! Step straight from high school into a good starting salary at Life of Virginia. There's opportunity galore here, too, in one of America's largest insurance companies. If it's a career you're looking for, free advancement training courses will also help you qualify for interesting, responsible, good-paying jobs higher up "on the ladder."

It's a happy life! You're welcomed into a friendly group of nearly 600 "Licovans" at our air-conditioned home office. Recreation programs include sports, picnics, parties. Make friends in an attractive, dollar-saving cafeteria. Short hours (8:30-4:30, no Saturdays), holidays and vacations give more time for outside fun.

It's a secure life! Retirement plans plus social security . . . a registered nurse on full-time duty . . . life, medical, disability insurance. To make this good life your life, write or drop by our Personnel Division, Life of Virginia Building . . . overlooking Capitol Square.

Our Best Wishes and Sincere
CONGRATULATIONS TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF JOHN MARSHALL!

We know that all of you are proud of having completed that important phase of your education which is acquired at high school . . . and that the school was John Marshall! For John Marshall as a public institution of learning, is a hallowed tradition with many generations of Richmonders who remember it with sweet nostalgia!

Many of these "old grads" are SIEGEL customers today, and we believe they would acknowledge that we are something of a tradition in our field . . . namely selling good food at consistently low prices!

Congratulations . . . You have now reached the end of your education—but it is "the beginning end." From here on, your education will generally not be guided, but rather a product of your own choice. It is with this in mind that we solicit your patronage in the field of transportation.

We would be most pleased to consult with you at any time on your automotive needs in the Imported Car field.

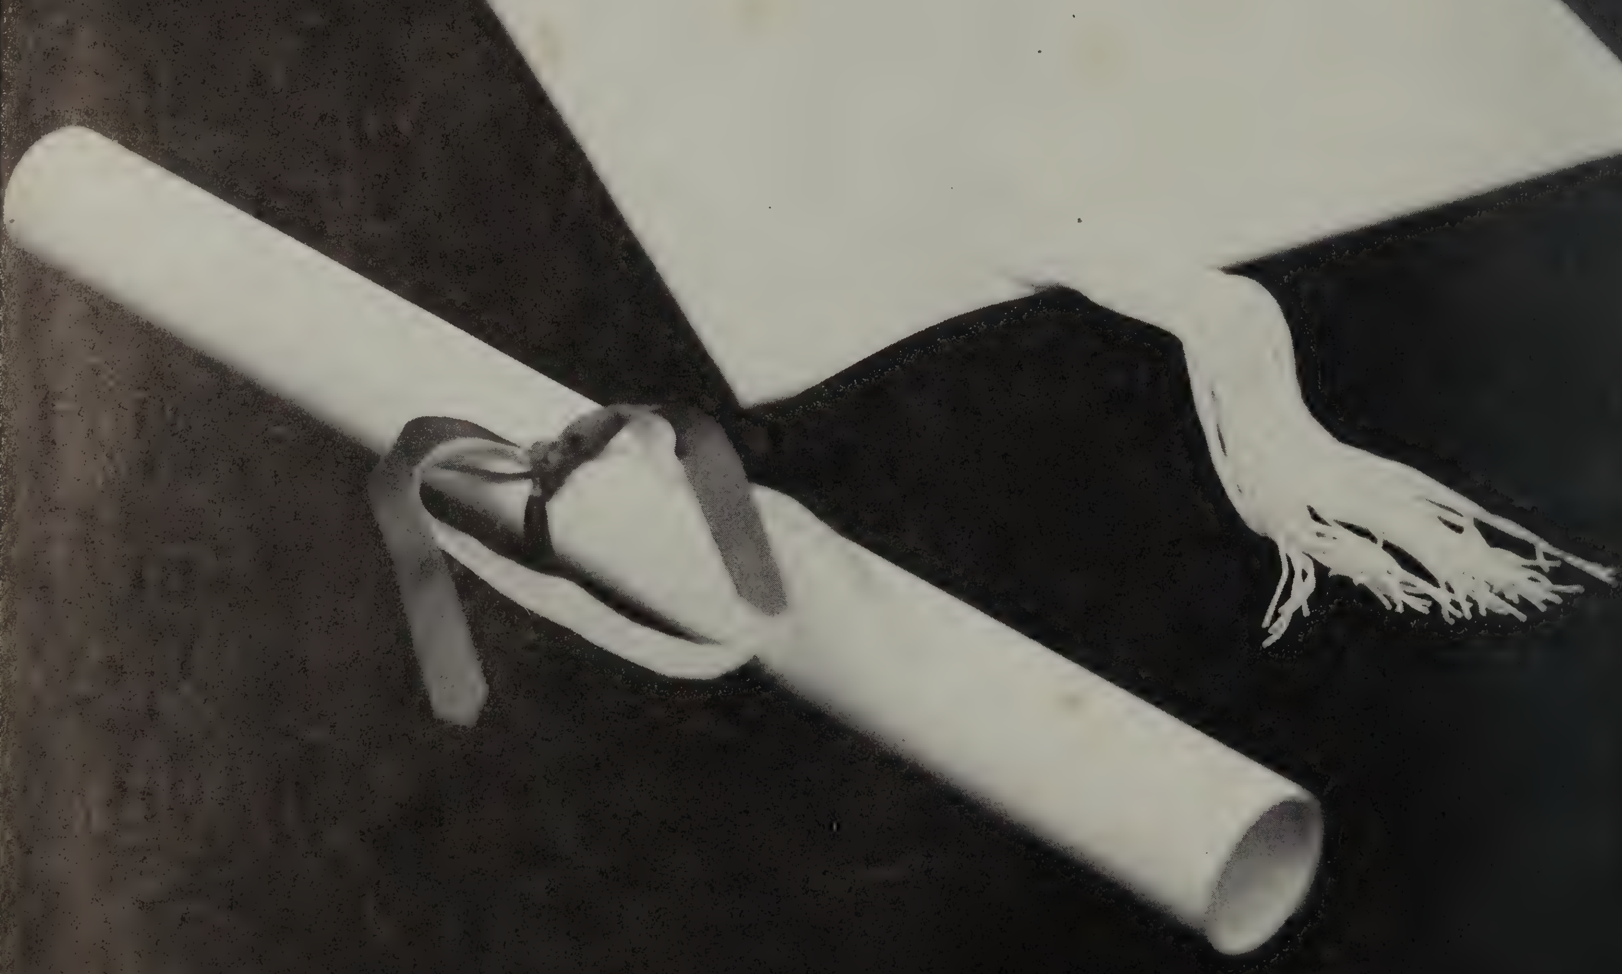
TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY
"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made

IN RETROSPECT . . .



Our task is complete, and in evaluation, we look back with much fondness and a little regret that it's all over. We have attempted to interpret a year and a school and a people who because of that year and that school will never be quite the same. We have tried to preserve a part of the spirit and purpose of that year, exemplified by our standard and theme—Self-Discipline—Justice—Honor.
